Scope and Content: This collection primarily contains notes provided to attendees at the 2017 Process of Integrating Evidence (PIE) for Complementary and Integrative Health (CIH) Educators Conference. Some materials were intended for the full audience of teaching and administrative attendees, while others were targeted to either teaching or administrative track participants. Some materials were provided to attendees in a binder when they signed in for the conference, while others were provided electronically and printed out by NWHSU archivist Monica Howell on July 18, 2017. These were all printed in grayscale; for color versions, see electronic copies, access to which are available upon request from the archivist. Folder 2 contains additional materials regarding the conference, including attendee lists and general conference information.
