

PREFERRED ADMISSIONS AGREEMENT BETWEEN RIPON COLLEGE AND NORTHWESTERN HEALTH SCIENCES UNIVERSITY

INTRODUCTION

Created upon a mutual regard for the integrity of parallel academic programs and in an effort to better serve students preparing to pursue a career in chiropractic, Ripon College and Northwestern Health Sciences University (NWH SU) enter into an agreement for preferred admissions program. This agreement will define preparatory course work to be completed at Ripon College for students intending to matriculate into NWH SU; this agreement will articulate the special terms for admission into NWH SU to earn a Doctor of Chiropractic to participating students from Ripon College.

OBJECTIVES OF THE AGREEMENT

1. The purpose of this Agreement is to foster a spirit of cooperation between these two educational institutions.
2. It is agreed and understood that each institution has the right and responsibility to make changes to its curricula and enrollment standards to maintain its academic integrity and meet accreditation standards.
3. At the request of either institution a meeting or conference will be held to resolve any problems, monitor the progress, and develop any improvements in this preferred admissions program.
4. Neither institution will discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, age, physical or mental disability, ancestry, sexual orientation, political affiliation, marital status, status as a U.S. military veteran per federal guidelines 41 C.F.R. 60-300.5(a) and 41 C.F.R. 60-741.5(a.), parental status, and pregnancy in the selection and participation of students. With respect to a disability, a qualified student with a disability is an individual who (with or without reasonable accommodations-academic adjustments) meets the legitimate standards and criteria that are rationally related to the stated goals or purposes of each institution's educational program.
5. Beginning with the first semester of the 2017/2018 Ripon College academic year, a preferred admissions program for a Doctor of Chiropractic degree from NWH SU will be available to qualified students. This preferred admissions program will require approximately three and one third consecutive years at NWHHSU. Students must complete and meet all NWHHSU graduation requirements in order to graduate with a Doctor of Chiropractic degree.

6. Northwestern Health Sciences University will provide a $2000 tuition stipend for each graduate of Ripon College who enrolls in a Northwestern Health Sciences University academic program.
7. Ripon College students will be accepted for admission to NWHHSU under this preferred admissions program upon:
 1. Completing a minimum of 90 semester credits from a regionally accredited institution.
 2. Completing a minimum of 24 semester credits in Natural Science in which $\frac{1}{2}$ of the credits come from labs.
 3. Attaining a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average in Ripon College coursework or 2.75 for provisional acceptance.
 4. Receiving a positive recommendation from the program director at Ripon College and/or the pre-health coordinator at Ripon College.
 5. Timely submission of all application materials to NWHHSU. It is highly recommended that students apply 9-12 months prior to anticipated date of matriculation.
 6. Conditional acceptance will be offered upon successful completion of one half of the prerequisite course work and minimum of 60 credits have been completed and full acceptance will be offered upon successful completion of all entrance requirements.
8. Recruitment of students for this program will be the responsibility of Ripon College with the cooperation of NWHHSU.
9. Under the terms of this Agreement, neither institution is obligated to make any payments of any kind to the other institution.
10. This Agreement will, in no way, be interpreted as creating an agency or employment relationship between the institutions, or as giving rise to a joint venture or partnership between the institutions.
11. This Agreement is intended to solely benefit the institutions, and is not intended to create rights in any third party. Students participating in the program, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, will not be considered third party beneficiaries of the Agreement.
12. This Agreement may be terminated by either institution by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the other institution at the address hereinafter set forth.

MUTUAL PROMOTION OF THE PROGRAM

Ripon College and Northwestern Health Sciences University both agree to encourage qualified students to participate in this preferred admissions program through advisement and dissemination of information. Both Institutions agree to develop an annual communication calendar and promote the preferred admissions program in their recruitment activities and literature and to refer prospective students, when appropriate, to the other's admission office.

STUDENT ADVISEMENT

An appropriate faculty member at Ripon College shall be assigned and be responsible to advise students regarding their academic preparation for admission to Northwestern Health Sciences University and for their ultimate goal of chiropractic licensure. This advisement shall include attention to special requirements for licensure in some states, such as completion of the baccalaureate degree prior to matriculation in a chiropractic college. In addition, NWHSU will provide advisement during the enrollment process and throughout the program to ensure students have a clear understanding of the sequence of courses and graduation requirements for their program.
